Student:		Score:
Code quality (40%, requires score > 5.5)	Comments:	Score:
☐ Does the code work? (Also on other computers?) ☐ Is the code clear and understandable? ☐ Is the code easy to use? ☐ Is the code modular? ☐ Is the code easily extensible? ☐ How scalable is the solution? ☐ Does the code follow the guidelines? ☐ Is the repository well-organized?
Content & features (30%, requires score > 5.5)	Comments:	Score
☐ Are the project requirements met? ☐ Are the results stored in a reasonable format? ☐ Is the overall approach valid and appropriate? ☐ How advanced is the level of text processing? ☐ Did the student go above & beyond the basic requirements? ☐ Are there any original features?
Visualizations (20%)	Comments:	Score:
☐ Do the visualizations serve a purpose? (What do they tel lus?) ☐ Are these the right visualizations for the task? ☐ Are they clear and understandable? ☐ Is there any variation in the visualizations?
Documentation (10%, requires score > 5.5)	Comments:	Score:
☐ Is the code well-documented? In other words: ☐ Does every function have a docstring? ☐ Does the code do what the documentation says? ☐ Is the code understandable, given the docs? ☐ Is there a README, detailing how to use the code? ☐ If there is data, is the source of the data credited?		